From the Pastor...

This Sunday I am preaching about faith and freedom. In scripture, they are always tied together. Paul said, "You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in love" (Galatians 5:13).

Our freedom is given by God, but we have a choice with what to do with it. We can use it for ourselves, or we can use it to help one another. Individualism has many merits, but it must be tempered by a concern for the least of these.

I recently read an article that compared America to a sports team that wasn't playing well together. Teams that fight and fuss rarely win. Teams that come together do great things. My prayer for our country on its birthday is that we will unite in love and concern for one another.

I am thankful that during this stressful time our congregation has chosen to put others above ourselves. Every day I see you use your freedom to care for one another and our community. When you call and ask how you can help or tell me how you are helping; it makes me proud to be our pastor.

Thank you for your support and cooperation as we continue to figure out how to do ministry in an age of Covid-19. Our initial plan of worshiping in three spaces worked well, but our staff and Covid-19 task force feel we can make some adjustments to better serve everyone.

Starting July 5, we will all meet together in the sanctuary once again. Our space will be limited, however. So after the socially distanced spaces are taken up, we will ask folks to overflow into Adams Hall. Of course we will also continue live stream options. We appreciate your help in making this work.

We will also have a nursery available beginning this Sunday for children (birth through three years old). We are opening more space to give the children maximum area and are also requiring a temperature check before accepting a child. Parents are asked to use their own discretion about whether or not to use the nursery.

Happy Independence Day to us all. "If the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed!" (John 8:36).

What is Your Song?

This week I read a sermon by David Wilkerson (remember "The Cross and the Switchblade"?). He cited Isaiah 24:14-16 talking about the song of the remnant in the end times—their time of fierce trial. Those who have studied the book of Revelation know the devastation, destruction, and death that will be prevalent during that time. God was preparing Israel through the prophet Isaiah to have a song ready to sing. I believe the message to all believers is that we, too, should have a song ready to sing when we are going through hard times, or good times for that matter. Learn your song now so you will have it ready to sing in your hour of trial.

What is your song? A hymn? A Bible verse? A prayer? Sing it! God loves music. He invented it.

His servant and your friend,
Ginny Stikeleather

CBF Mission Bites

Mission Bite 187: Applying Lessons Learned

We struggle, like many others, to make sense of what is happening. In light of this pandemic, we must find creative ways to continue our work with immigrants here in Spain.

We are drawing on what God taught us on our first CBF field location. While living in India, we had to learn to adjust to water and electricity shortages, washing by hand, and hanging clothes outside. We were evacuated because of the threat of war and had to spend two months away from home. Through all of this we learned that trusting God and not our circumstances was the answer. Now we are applying those lessons once again.

Mission Bite 188: Kind Eyes

Just before all the coronavirus restrictions came into effect, I traveled to Mexico. Things went smoothly just as I had prayed. Then on my return home, I had a problem. After leaving customs and entering the security area for my connecting flight, I realized I had left my cell phone in customs.

Returning to the door of the customs area I saw 3 security workers. They gave me my cell phone. I ran back to the gate. I had missed the plane by 7 minutes. The next flight was 6 a.m. the next morning. It was almost 9 p.m. I decided to spend the night in the airport. I needed something to eat. I went into a small fast food place. The waitress had a big smile and kind eyes. I told her my story. After I finished, I saw two young men about my son's age looking at us. They had been listening to my story. They also had kind eyes.

These eyes of compassion brought strength to my soul. They weren't offering me a bed for the night or even conversation, but there was something about these eyes that spoke encouragement.

I continued to see these same compassionate eyes in other faces that night. Eyes of fellow travelers stranded like I was, and eyes of the homeless in the airport. It was an experience for me. I could have gone to a hotel but I'm glad I didn't.

I entered briefly into the place of vulnerability and homelessness where many who are traveling as refugees and immigrants remain not for one night, but sometimes many years.

God answered my prayer for a "good trip." I learned the value of compassionate eyes. Perhaps this was preparation for the situation we are in today with COVID-19...multitudes thinking their "good trip" has gone haywire. May God give us His compassionate eyes and may we use them to strengthen those who are in difficulty. (1 Corinthians 13: 4-8).

Announcements

A Note of Appreciation From David & Nancy Deal

Thank you FBC family for your outpouring of love to the family of Ovaline Watts. The meal lovingly prepared by our adopted Sunday School class was appreciated by our extended family. Many members have honored Mother's dedication to church and family through the numerous cards, letters, and phone calls.

A special thanks to Nelson who knows how to put the right words of comfort and compassion together at this time of grief. And a thank you to Eddie for playing the old hymns that she loved so much.

We love you FBC family,
David & Nancy Deal

A Note of Appreciation From Dianne Martin

It has now been three months since my husband Jim died, and I want to take this opportunity to thank my church family at First Baptist for all their kindnesses – beautiful and meaningful cards, personal notes, food, phone calls, and lots of prayers. Generous memorial gifts have been contributed to both Hospice and to our FBC Benevolence fund.

Thank you so much,
Dianne Martin
